Dr. Tron Malachowski – Finalist

Lowcountry Specific Chiropractic

Dr. Tron Malachowski owns and operates Lowcountry Specific Chiropractic and works daily to increase patients' quality of life.

Dr. Malachowski has developed a six-week educational series called LiveWELL Healthy Living Class, which teaches people to develop a healthy, balanced and wholesome lifestyle. He has taught this class to more than 1,200 people, and the classes have helped with eating disorders, weight issues, diabetes and other health issues.

The classes also encourage exercise, walking regimens and healthy eating habits. Dr. Malachowski offers the class for free to community groups. His work has gone overseas as well through his participation in mission trips in Honduras and Nicaragua. Dr. Malachowski also volunteers for the Dorchester Children's Center, which serves abused and neglected children and their families.
